WORLD YOUTH DAY AT SIX FLAGS,

I'm so proud of our kids in the youth group that went to World Youth Day at Six Flags, We, St. Michael's had 25 youth participate in the procession, opening the Mass, in the Music Mill theater. We had 6 youth join from St. Joseph Catholic Church in Grand Prairie and 6 youth from St. Paul's in Richardson. This year the Music Mill was filled with over 8,000 youth and chaperones. Bishop Ferrell from Dallas and Bishop Vann from Fort Worth Concelebrated the Mass. The Mass was one to remember for the Catholic youth and adults that joined. Thanks to all who came with us. Next year we will all have "COOL" T-shirts like the other youth groups. Start thinking about a t-shirt design.

Thanksgiving Tradition - At our Thanksgiving Mass at 10:00 AM, November 27th, we will again bless any food or drink that you bring to Mass. In some cultures, it is common to bring bread or wine or another item that will be shared at the Thanksgiving table, and have that food blessed. Feel free to join this tradition if you desire.
